Gen Z, in particular, wants to see change. They aren't sheltered ..
Gen Z-ers, like millennials, don't care much what's said in church on Sunday morning if they don't see it walk over that chasm into Monday through Saturday.

They want to see the impact of faith & identity apart from a Sunday morning experience.
If they don't see transformation in society, they're going to question the reality of what we say we believe.

U.S. teens ages 13–18, n=621, Nov. 4–16, 2016. U.S. adults 19 and older, n=486, Nov. 4–16, 2016.

Church needs to engage in what could be called "vocational discipleship". This means teaching young people about the integration of faith & occupation, helping them to better understand the concept of calling and emphasizing the meaning and theological significance of work (not just their potential for professional or financial success)

What is Summer Mission

Summer Mission is a two-week mission to send young missionaries to remote parts of Indonesia Archipelago. Initially this program was aimed for Indonesian's students who studied abroad so they get to learn about the diverse culture of Indonesia and to experience deeper love with God during the time spent in it. This program has been regularly held since 1989 and celebrated its 30th year anniversary in 2019.

Summer Mission has had over 1,000 alumni over the years, many of whom are now serving as Pastors, Leaders in their respective communities and Renowned businessmen in many parts of the world. Many of them credited their experience in Summer Mission as LIFE CHANGING.

Summer Mission believes that only each generation can reach out to their generation and that the best way for any generation to understand God's heart is by going to where His heart really is, in MISSIONS.

Summer Mission is the answer for Next Gen Leaders to NOT only learn, but also to have a Personal Encounter with God.

Summer Mission fundamentally changes the way I see a prayer, whether the strength of prayer in itself and how to have the courage to pray for others. Also how precious one soul is and how to find gratefulness in life.

I wanted to join Summer Mission because I heard many good experiences and stories of it and through Summer Mission, I learned to be more friendly and bolder to approach people to help them know Jesus

If I had one word to describe summer mission 2016, it would be exhilarating .. I found joy and happiness in performing according to my calling, in the plainness of my prayers to the Lord & saw many miracles occur ..

The leadership of every church should constantly be asking themselves:

Are we raising up the next generation of leaders in our Church?

Are we equipping those who will later equip others?

Just as Jesus equipped His disciples, we too must equip others to carry on after our season of leadership is over.
